I. Qualifications

1. Nationality Requirements (All applicants):

Both the applicants and their parents must be foreign nationals without Korean citizenship

- 1) Both applicants and their parents must have acquired non-Korean nationality before the applicant's enrollment in an educational curriculum equivalent to the high school curriculum in Korea. Korean nationals with dual or multiple nationalities are not eligible to apply; this applies to the applicant and both parents.
- 2) Applicants who themselves and/or their parents have ever held Korean nationality must submit a Denationalization Certificate that verifies renunciation of Korean nationality and its date (e.g. Family relation certificate (가족관계증명서), certificate of removal from family registry (제적등본), declaration of loss of nationality for both the applicant and parent(s) (국적상실/이탈사실 증명), etc.) Application for renunciation of Korean nationality (국적상실(이탈)사실신고 접수증 및 신고서) is not considered valid as proof of loss of Korean nationality.) Applicants and/or their parents must renounce (lose) their Korean nationality before the applicant's enrollment in an educational curriculum equivalent to the high school curriculum in Korea.
- 3) If the applicant's parents are divorced, and one of the parents has custody (parental rights) of the applicant, only that parent's nation will be considered in nationality requirements. In this case, submission of the relevant official documents that prove divorce and custody (parental rights) is mandatory. However, if the person with custody (parental rights) remarried someone with Korean nationality, that applicant can NOT apply regardless of whether the Korean who remarried with the applicant's custody holder has adopted the applicant. In case the applicant's parents have divorced after the applicant became an adult, and so parents do not have any parental authority or have joint custody, the applicant's parents and the person they remarried must each submit certificates of nationality and remarriage.
- 4) Adopted applicants are eligible to apply only if the applicant obtained a nationality of another country (other than Korea) before the applicant's enrollment in an educational curriculum equivalent to the primary school curriculum in Korea. In this case, declaration of loss of nationality (국적상실/이탈사실 증명) must be submitted.

2. Academic Requirements

1) Freshman Applicants

- (1) Applicants have graduated or are expected to graduate from accredited primary and secondary schools inside or outside of Korea. (12-year education)
 - ☞ If you studied less than 12 years of education, please consult as to whether you can apply or not
- (2) High school diploma equivalency exams (for example, the GED in the U.S. or Canada, the 검정고시 in Korea, and China's Higher Education Self-taught Examination (高等教育自学考试)), home schooling, online courses (cyber learning), continuing (lifelong) education courses, adult education courses, correspondence courses, language courses from the level of primary and secondary education are not regarded as equivalent to the regular academic school curriculum.

2) Transfer Applicants

In addition, transfer applicants must meet at least one of the following requirements:

- (1) Applicants have completed or are expected to complete at least 2 years of a 4-year undergraduate degree program with at least 50 percent of the credits required for graduation at an accredited Korean or foreign university
- (2) Applicants have graduated or are expected to graduate from a 2- or 3-year associate degree program at an accredited Korean or foreign college

※ Failure to achieve graduation or completion standards may result in cancellation of acceptance and admission.

3) Applicants require academic records from schools accredited under the education laws of their respective countries.

3. Language Proficiency Requirements

All applicants must meet one or more of the following requirements:

- 1) TOPIK report of Level 3 or above (TOPIK IBT score is also acceptable. However, trial test score is not acceptable)
- 2) Korean Language Program Completion Certificate issued by Konkuk Language Institute of Level 3 or above

- 3) Report card of Korean Language Test Level 3 or above conducted and issued by Konkuk Language Institute
 - 4) Completed Level 3 (or its equivalent) and above of a Korean language program at an IEQAS certified university's Korean Language Institute in Korea.
 - 5) Completed at least 1 year of language training at an IEQAS certified university's Korean Language Institute in Korea and passed school examinations. (excluding fail/non-pass)
 - 6) Completed Korean Intermediate Level 1 or above of the King Sejong Institute
 - 7) Holders of other Korean language proficiency documents
- ※ In this case(No.7), it will be up to Konkuk University's discretion to decide whether language requirements have been satisfied.
- ※ All students must acquire TOPIK Level 4 or above to graduate.

※ Applicants for colleges other than the International College

- (1st round): Failure to attain the above specified language requirements by Oct. 22, 2024 (Tue) will result in disqualification.
- (2nd round): Failure to attain the above specified language requirements by Nov. 28, 2024 (Thur) will result in disqualification.

※ Applicants for the International College: The International College is exclusively for international students, and there are no domestic(Korean) students enrolled.

- (1st round): Applicants who fail to meet the language requirements by Oct. 22, 2024 (Tue) may still enroll on March 4, 2025 (Tue) if they meet them by Nov. 28, 2024 (Thur). If the language requirements are not met by Nov. 28, 2024 (Thur) but are satisfied by Feb. 18, 2025 (Tue), enrollment is possible on March 4, 2025 (Tue). However, language certificates submitted after Nov. 28, 2024 (Thur) will only be accepted for applicants who are already living in Korea AND able to change their VISA status to D-2 before the beginning of the new semester (March 4, 2025(Tue)) OR have a VISA with eligibility to study in a Korean university.
- (2nd round): Applicants who fail to meet the language requirements by Nov. 28, 2024 (Thur) may still enroll on March 4, 2025 (Tue) if they meet them by Feb. 18, 2025 (Tue). However, language certificates submitted after Nov. 28, 2024 (Thur) will only be accepted for applicants who are already living in Korea AND able to change their VISA status to D-2 before the beginning of the new semester (March 4, 2025(Tue)) OR have a VISA with eligibility to study in a Korean university.

(For both 1st & 2nd round applicants)

If language requirements are not met by Feb. 18, 2025 (Tue), applicants may still receive a conditional acceptance. If applicants attain the required language requirements (below) by the school's specified deadline after conditional acceptance, applicants may officially enroll. Failure to meet this deadline will result in the cancellation of conditional acceptance. However, depending on when the language certificates are submitted, only certificates submitted by applicants who are already living in Korea AND are able to change their VISA status to D-2 before the beginning of the new semester OR have a VISA with eligibility to study in a Korean university will be accepted.

1. TOPIK report of Level 3 or above
2. Korean Language Program Completion Certificate issued by Konkuk Language Institute of Level 3 or above
3. Report card of Korean Language Test Level 3 or above conducted and issued by Konkuk Language Institute
4. Completed Level 3 (or its equivalent) and above of a Korean language program at an IEQAS certified university's Korean Language Institute in Korea.
5. Completed at least 1 year of language training at an IEQAS certified university's Korean Language Institute in Korea and passed school examinations. (excluding fail/non-pass)
6. Completed Korean Intermediate Level 1 or above of the King Sejong Institute.
7. Holders of other Korean language proficiency documents.

※ In this case(No.7), it will be up to Konkuk University's discretion to decide whether language requirements have been satisfied.

- 4. Other requirements: Those who did not apply, did not pass, or withdrew their acceptance in the 1st round of application to Konkuk University in Spring 2025 may apply in the 2nd round of application.

II. Guidelines for conditionally accepted candidates of the International College

1. Applicants for the International College may receive a conditional acceptance and be issued conditional acceptance certificates even if they do not meet the specified language requirements by Oct. 22, 2024 (Tue) [1st round applicants] / Nov. 28, 2024 (Thur) [2nd round applicants].
2. Conditionally accepted applicants who are able to meet the language requirements by Feb. 18, 2025 (Tue) (e.g. 2024 Winter Semester Level 3 students of Konkuk Language Institute), must pay the tuition fee between Jan. 6, 2025 (Mon) 10:00 a.m. ~ Jan. 10, 2025 (Fri) 4:00 p.m. and may officially enroll on March 4, 2025 (Tue) if they submit the language certificates by Feb. 18, 2025 (Tue). (However, if applicants submit additional language certificates after Nov. 28, 2024 (Thur), only language certificates submitted by applicants who are already living in Korea AND are able to change their VISA status to D-2 before the beginning of the new semester (March 4, 2025(Tue)) OR have a VISA with eligibility to study in a Korean university will be accepted. If conditionally accepted applicants pay their tuition fee but fail to meet the language requirements by Feb. 18, 2025 (Tue), the tuition fee paid will be refunded).
3. Those who cannot or do not meet the language requirements by Feb. 18, 2025 (Tue), are required to re-apply to the department they were conditionally accepted to either in 2025 Fall or 2026 Spring/Fall after attaining (or on schedule to attain) the language requirements, and pay the application fee again. In addition, the undergraduate tuition fee for the re-applied semester must be paid during the designated payment period for that semester. It is important to note that tuition, scholarships, and other admission-related matters are subject to change in subsequent semesters and are contingent upon the specific terms of each semester. If you re-apply to a department other than the department of conditional acceptance or re-apply after the designated period, the conditional acceptance will be cancelled.
4. In the case of re-application, applicants do not need to submit all the application documents again. Instead, the applicant only needs to submit the Certificate of Conditional Acceptance and documents certifying language proficiency. However, some additional documents (financial documents, etc.) may be requested due to changes in school policies or for issuance of Certificate of Admission and if not submitted, will result in the cancellation of conditional acceptance and subsequent admission.
5. If you wish and are eligible for the VISA after receiving a conditional acceptance, you have the option to study at Konkuk Language Institute. However, it is not mandatory. If you wish to study at Konkuk Language Institute, you must submit the related documents according to the stipulated regulations and undergo the due application procedures.
6. Further instructions and information regarding related matters will be provided directly to successful conditionally accepted applicants in the future.

※ Mechanical Engineering, Civil and Environmental Engineering, Industrial Engineering, Electrical and Electronics Engineering, Aerospace and Mobility Engineering, Chemical Engineering divisions/departments run Accreditation Board for Engineering Education of Korea (ABEEK)-certified programs. Students in these divisions/departments must participate in ABEEK program and fulfill all ABEEK requirements to graduate. (Subject to change depending on circumstances.)

* International students may proceed to a general uncertified program after consulting with PD (Program Director) professors to graduate.

* Students who wish to withdraw from ABEEK program need to visit Engineering Education Research Center and submit the letter of withdrawal at least one semester before graduating.

※ Due to Korean Language Course requirements or lack of credits from prior university, transfer students may not be able to graduate within 4 semesters.

※ In order to apply for a transfer2, an applicant must be enrolled at a foreign university that has signed a special agreement with Konkuk. The applicant can only apply for a department (or major) specified in that agreement.

※ The four majors of the College of Education are allowed to admit only a small number of students, under government regulations.

※ Applicants must apply for a total of three majors by selecting them in order of their preference.

V. Application Process

1. Online Application

- 1) Period: 1st round: Sep. 19, 2024 (Thur) 9:30 a.m. ~ Sep. 30, 2024 (Mon) 5:00 p.m.
2nd round: Nov. 7, 2024 (Thur) 9:30 a.m. ~ Nov. 20, 2024 (Wed) 5:00 p.m.
- 2) Direct link: https://applynow.kr/konkuk_isa/main
- 3) “Application Category (지원구분)” on the Application Form
 - ☞ Choose “Freshman (신입학),” “Transfer (편입학),” or “Transfer2(편입학2)” first, then select “College (대학)” and “Major (모집단위).”
- 4) Applicants can apply for a major related to their native language, but applicants whose native language is English cannot apply for English Education major.
- 5) All required spaces must be filled out on the online application.
- 6) Applicants should provide their valid and frequently-used e-mail address. Important information and updates will be sent by e-mail and it is the applicants’ responsibility to write the correct e-mail address and check their e-mail accounts regularly. The responsibility for any issues arising from not checking e-mail or writing the incorrect e-mail address, solely rests with the applicant.
- 7) After completing the online application (paying application fee), applicants cannot cancel the application, change admission type or major.
- 8) Applications without application fee or required documents will be rejected.
- 9) Application fee
 - ① Colleges other than Arts & Design: KRW 150,000 / Arts & Design College: KRW 180,000
 - ② After completing the online application (paying application fee), the application fee is non-refundable. However, under special circumstances in accordance with the relevant law (Article 42-3 (2) of the Higher Education Act Enforcement Decree), part or full amount of the application fee can be refunded (excluding application agency (Apexsoft) fees).
 - ③ If applicant who is not eligible for the application is mistaken for being eligible for the application and pays the typical fee, the application fee is non-refundable.
- 10) For troubleshooting regarding the online application, please contact Apexsoft directly (gradnet@apexsoft.co.kr)

2. Korean Language Test conducted by Konkuk Language Institute

- 1) Applicants who register for the Korean Language Test conducted by Konkuk Language Institute will be sent an e-mail regarding its detailed procedures and instruction.
- 2) Test Fee: KRW 70,000 (Separate from Application Fee)
 - After applying, applicant must transfer the test fee to the designated bank account stated in the e-mail.
 - Failure in paying the test fee will result in the applicant’s test-taking right being denied.
 - In any case of cheating in the Korean Language Test, such as having someone else take your examination, your admission to Konkuk University may be cancelled.

3. Submission of Required Documents
